

Trails at Lake Jeanette

North Elm Street Trail

This is the Master Association's longest trail. It begins to right of the sidewalk on North Elm Street behind the dental practice, wraps around the lake behind the Brownstones, and brings you to the backside of Waterford Apartments and the pedestrian walking bridge on North Elm St.

Distance: 4,756 ft.

Eastern Shores Trail

The head of this trail begins at the intersection of Lake Jeanette Road and Turnstone Drive, extends through the East Park Entrance on Eastern Shores Drive, and ends at the gated entrance of Eastern Shores Estates. An overgrown trail owned by ITG picks up on the right hand side of the gated entrance to Eastern Shores Estates, but this trail is no longer maintained by ITG – it is almost impassable.

Distance: 2,433 feet (this measurement does not include the old ITG trail)

Southern Shores Trails

1. There is a short trail between the intersections of Hatteras and Leeward next to 1501 Regents Park Lane that takes you to the lake in Southern Shores.

Distance: 435 feet

2. The trail on Baytree next to the stone bridge is also a short trail that takes you to the lake.

Distance: 240 feet

Northern Shores Trails

The following locations are also short trails that carry you to the lake.

1. Sunfish Point to Flagship Cove Distance: 523 feet
2. Center Island at Flagship Cove Distance: 313 feet
3. Flagship Gazebo and Dock area Distance: 84 feet
4. Captains Point to Bass Landing Distance: 470 feet
5. Bass Landing Gazebo area Distance: 273 feet

Lake Jeanette Marina

There is a small section of trail that extends south from the Marina Picnic Shelter behind the Lake Jeanette Swim and Tennis Club and ends at the lake.

Distance: 940 feet
